Fault is Among Dead.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 19.—From forty to forty-five are dead as the result of a collision between the Alaskan steamer Jeannie and the river steamer Dix at Alki Point, last night.

Charles Dennison, mate and acting master of the Dix is accused by Capt. Mason of the Jeannie and Capt. Leonard, usual commander of the Dix with responsibility.

Dennison is dead.

The Jeannie with over a thousand tons burden, carried three hundred tons of ore bound for Tacoma.

The Dix came up from the rear, according to officers of the Jeannie with the evident intention to cross her bows. Mason from the Jeannie's bridge called to Dennison:

"What are you trying to do? What do you mean?"

He then ordered full speed astern, but too late.

The Jeannie hit the Dix amidships and cut her in two.

Most of the passengers were drowned with no chance to save themselves. Many were saved by the Jeannie's boats, and survivors so far as seen blamed the officers of the Dix.

EXPOSED BY TALK;
BANDITS MURDERChicago Officer Killed and Safeblowers are Both Wounded

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 19.—Police-man Fitzpatrick was killed by a safe-blower giving the name of Charles Hanson of Bloomington, Ill., who is dying and the other crackman, wounded, is being sought in fashionable Lawlawn after a battle this morning.

The officers tried to arrest the two men who were betrayed by the conversation on the cars, as bank robbers. Fitzpatrick's body has seven bullet wounds.

PITTSBURG WOMEN IN DANGER OF ATTACK

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 19.—Three outrageous attacks on women, incident to Pittsburgh's carnival of crime, have been reported to the police. One woman is in such a serious condition that she may not recover, and if she does she will be disfigured for life.

The worst of the outrages was perpetrated on Thursday night, although the matter was hushed. The victim was Miss Jeanette Brownlee of North Braddock. Early Thursday evening Miss Braddock started from her home to go to Swissvale to make a payment on an insurance policy. When she reached a dark corner she was suddenly confronted by a negro who asked her where "Mr. Smith" lived.

Badly frightened the girl tried to hurry on, when the negro seized her by the arm and tried to take her purse, which contained a large sum of money. Miss Brownlee screamed, when the negro threw the contents of a vial of carbolic acid in her face. She fell unconscious just as two men appeared.

The negro hurried away and made his escape. Miss Brownlee was carried to her home, where she continued in a very serious condition. Her face, neck and hands are badly burned by the acid.

Last evening while Mrs. P. G. Foley of Hasslet avenue, Lincoln place, was alone in her home there was a knock at the side door, and when she opened it a man with a handkerchief tied about his face pushed past her. Mrs. Foley screamed, when the burglar dealt her a stunning blow on the side of the head with a heavy cane which he carried.

Mrs. Foley fell unconscious to the floor, and was found there almost half an hour later by her husband, when he returned home. The thief had ransacked the house, securing $8 in money and some silverware.

Miss Margaret Nichols was returning to her home at 226 East McKeesport last evening when she was confronted by a masked man, who attempted to take her pocketbook. A desperate struggle followed. Concomitant A. J. Kemp was attracted by the girl's screaming, and the robber, on his approach disappeared.

George Grady, wanted by the police of Sharpsburg for alleged connection with six different holdups committed during the last ten days, was arrested at the corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield street by four constables and two policemen.

Grady was desperate, and put up a hard battle against the six officers, but was finally overpowered and dragged to central station. Before he reached there Grady apparently became unconscious, suffering, as it appeared, from an epileptic fit. He seemed to be in such a serious condition that he was hurried to the Homeopathic hospital, and placed in a private room.

The two physicians who were with him left him for a moment to get some medicines, as Grady appeared to be dying. When they returned Grady was nowhere to be seen. He evidently had left the room as soon as the physicians' backs were turned, and quietly walked out of the front door of the hospital.

Grady is believed to have been responsible for a large number of robberies, and the police are much concerned over his escape.

TULL MEETS WITH MYSTER-IOUS ACCIDENTFound With Wounds
in Bad Condition

RETIRED AFTER INJURY

Story of Probable Assault Followed by Story of Fall Down Stairs

With a scalp wound three inches long, two ribs broken and his back badly wrenched, E. J. Tull, bookkeeper for the W. W. Cargill company, is confined to his bed at home, 413 North Thirteenth street. The wounds were received Wednesday evening in a mysterious manner, which Mr. Tull and attending physician are unable to explain.

Dr. J. L. Callahan was called to attend Mr. Tull Thursday morning, finding him weak from the loss of blood and injured from the wounds. The condition of the patient was precarious for two days, it being thought at the time that he might die. Every effort to keep the accident secret was made.

From all accounts, Mr. Tull probably fell down stairs while retiring for the night. His story is to this effect, although his mind is almost a blank. The blows on the head made it difficult for him to remember.

Mr. Tull believes that he fell down and injured himself, rising to go to bed and fell again. The falls rendered him unconscious, but later he revived and was able to retire, first changing his clothes. He thought himself not badly injured, but called Dr. Callahan the next morning.

Stories of a n assault found an early report, but the house furnishings and valuables were not disturbed, thus destroying the foundation of this rumor. Everything of value in the house was found in its proper place.

"Mr. Tull was in a precarious condition for a time, due to the loss of blood, but is recovering now," said Dr. Callahan today. "He suffered a scalp wound, three inches long, which necessitated five stitches. He also fractured two ribs, and injured his back. He is improving now, but must remain at home for several days more."

At the home today, the condition of Mr. Tull was reported as improving. Nothing is known about the accident there, the servant in charge professing ignorance.

But few men will pass through the pearly gates if St. Peter springs an investigating committee on them.

cerned over his escape.

So great has become the alarm of the women of Pittsburgh over the numerous robberies that last evening the chorus of the Jefferson de Angelis Opera company, playing at the Nixon theater, appeared in a body before the manager and informed him that he would have to provide them with sleeping apartments in the theater, as they were afraid to go home alone after the night performance. It was impossible to allow the girls to sleep in the theater, and so male escorts were provided for each of the women members of the company.

SOUTHERN STORMTornado in Mississippi Does Enormous Damage
in Towns

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Reports are slowly coming in from the storm-swept territory in Mississippi indicate the tornado Saturday night and Sunday was one of the worst in the history of the state.

Wires are down in all directions and railroads are completely blocked.

The towns of Winona, Okolona, Mahan and Techula were damaged and a number of lives were lost in each.

It is known two negroes were killed in Okolona. Crops in that section were devastated.

At Techula a tree was blown across a house and a woman and child were killed. Their bodies were cremated in the fire the collapse caused.

At Mahan, Ben Wofford, telegraph operator, and wife were probably fatally hurt. The property damage to the town was tremendous. Two churches near the opera house, the postoffice and a number of fine residences being destroyed.

GEORGIA SETS PACE
IN SOUTH'S PROGRESS

COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 19.—Encouraged by favorable labor conditions, a great influx of outside capital, and almost unlimited natural resources the industrial development now being wrought in the southern states, is nothing short of wonderful.

In every part of Georgia can this increased activity be noticed. Columbus, where the falls of the Chattahoochee river furnish over 200,000 horse power, is one of the most striking examples of the south's industrial growth. Within the past year it has increased over 5,000 in population. There have been new industries formed and old ones merged with larger capital, involving a total new investment of nearly $5,000,000.

Columbus, while formerly only a cotton center, is now surrounded by prosperous foundries, sugar cane mills, paper mills, and other large plants of every description. And there is room for many more.

With the increase in the number of factories has come a tremendous railroad development to take care of the shipping. Instead of being in a railroad pocket, with its manufacturers at the mercy of one railroad, Columbus has become the center of a railroad boom with new lines going out in every direction. Three new roads to different gulf ports are now in course of construction. With a navigable waterway from Columbus to the gulf, the railroads must enter into competition with an all-water route to the central and western states.

Savannah, Atlanta, Macon, Augusta and Columbus are jumping from cities with less than 100,000 population to much larger figures. Where formerly one large office building was pointed out, there are now numbers of skyscrapers completed and others going up. All over the state water power companies are being organized to harness the power of rivers, new electric light and gas companies are being formed, street car lines are being built, new railroads chartered and old ones extended. Factories can be seen going up in every village and hamlet, while public school buildings, agricultural colleges, and technical schools are being erected to educate the children of the state.

The beautiful and ever popular opera, "Martha," was given last evening at the Grand by the Standard Opera company under the auspices of the Women's club, and a large and representative audience was present to witness its production.

The Standard Opera company is not made up of stars of the finest magnitude, but they are very clever artists and give a clean, wholesome and enjoyable entertainment, leaving many pleasant memories and a lively desire to see them again.

"The Last Rose of Summer," by Miss Pauline Perry, was a gem and elicited a storm of applause, while the clever work of Miss Clara Hunt, as "Nancy," was cordially recognized by the audience.

Mr. Cecil DeMille, as "Lord Tristan," Mr. George A. Natason, as "Plunkett," and Mr. Edwin Howard, as "Lionel," sustained their parts with credit and aided materially in the success of the evening's entertainment.

The Women's club is to be congratulated on bringing the Standard Opera company to Freeport, and also on the success which crowned their efforts. We hope they will repeat the experiment soon and often. At the La Crosse theater, Monday and Tuesday, November 19 and 20.

Child Labor

John M. Holley Jr., assistant cashier of the State bank, and manager of the McMillan building, was arrested today on complaint of August Lehnoff, deputy factory inspector, charged with employing an elevator boy under the age of 16 years. The complaint alleges that the child labor law has been violated.

Mr. Lehnoff claims that Howard Maxwell, the son of W. S. Maxwell, 1520 Rose street, janitor of the building, is only 14 years old.

This morning a new elevator boy was found operating the hoist.

"THE SALOON MUST GO"

(Special Tribune Service.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 19.—Temperance advocates of national prominence are here in attendance on the annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America, which has its formal opening in the First Presbyterian church tonight.

The national organization of the Anti-Saloon league was started more than a decade ago in Oberlin, Ohio, by the late Rev. J. H. Kynett of the church extension board of the Methodist church, and Archbishop Ireland. The object of the league as is indicated by its motto, "The Saloon Must Go," is the suppression of the liquor traffic. The league is now organized in every state in the union. During the past few years it has taken more or less active part in politics and in some states, particularly in Ohio, it has made its influence felt in elections.

Among the men who will be heard at the present convention are Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, Hon. John G. Woolley of Chicago, Rev. Ward Beecher Pickard of Buffalo, Governor J. Frank Hanly of Indiana, E. S. Chapman, D. D., of California, Dr. E. O. Taylor of Boston, and Bishop Luther B. Wilson, who is president of the league.

Knights of Pythias
Here Tomorrow

BIG DISTRICT CONVENTION

Banquet and Social Time Will be Held After Initiation

One hundred visiting knights with twenty-five candidates to receive the rank of page are expected in La Crosse tomorrow to attend the third annual district convention of the Knights of Pythias to be held at Casleah all that night. L. W. Gosnell, district deputy, has prepared a program for the convention and will have charge of the affair.

Six of the state officers of the Knights of Pythias are expected to attend the convention, taking charge of the secret work of the order. The following grand officers have promised to attend:

Grand Chancellor Commander Orrin Thompson, Neenah.

Grand Vice Chancellor R. S. Witte, Milwaukee.

Grand Prelate E. G. Gottry, Reedsburg.

Grand Keeper of Records and Seals U. S. Burns, Milwaukee.

Inner Guard C. C. Hamilton, La Crosse.

Grand Trustee Ray S. Reid, La Crosse.

The rank of page will be conferred on all new candidates. At least twenty-five are expected to be here. The secret work of the order will be exemplified by Grand Chancellor Commander Thompson.

After the degree work, a banquet will be served. Toasts will be responded to by the state officers and others.

Following are the oldies comprised in district 6, the La Crosse district: Alma, Wis., Independence, Galesville, Sparta, Tomah, Tunnel City, Prairie du Chien, Bangor and La Crosse.

A large delegation from Bangor, where a new lodge was instituted a short time ago, is expected.

PALMER'S "LID"
IS IN OPERATION

The "lid" is on.

Alderman Harry Palmer, with the assistance of seven other aldermen, put a quietus to gambling in La Crosse Saturday night. Whether the cover is a got fit remains to be seen.

An order to stop all gambling was issued Saturday night, closing all public gambling places in the city. The places closed are those of Robert Ewe, 105 South Third street; M. J. Sullivan, 524 Mill street, and Michael O'Leary, 512 Mill street. All was dark in these establishments Saturday and last night.

The aldermen who signed the petition to stop gambling are Harry Palmer, W. W. Withee, H. J. Hirschheimer, W. P. Woellig, F. E. Smith, C. F. Emery, Peter Muenzenberger and B. H. Valentine.

PROVES NORTHMEN DISCOVERED US

MADISON Wis., Nov. 19.—That Norse literature affords indisputable evidence of the discovery of America by the Northmen is the conclusion reached by Professor Julius E. Olson of the department of Scandinavian languages at the University of Wisconsin in the volume "The Northmen, Columbus and Cabot," just published.

old Norse pages and Icelandic history and literature, Professor Olson says,
"The incontrovertible facts of the various Norse expeditions are that Leif Ericson and Thorfinn Karlsefni are assuredly historical characters as Christopher Columbus, that they visited, in the early part of the eleventh century, some part of North America where the grape grew and that in that region the colonists found savages whose hostility upset their plans of permanent settlement."

Compares Sagas

Among the Iceland sagas are found original narratives of American history of an earlier date than are elsewhere found. These are the prose sagas of the voyages of the Northmen to Vinland, the two most important of which are the "Saga of Eric the Red," and "Vinland History of the Flat Island Book." The latter is a history composed of two disjointed accounts found in a fine vellum man-script known as the Flat Island Book because it was long owned by a family on the northwest coast of Iceland. On living on Flat Island in Broad Firth, a comparison of these two, and on the internal evidence they give, corroborated by carefully preserved saga narratives, and hence the Northmen's priority of discovery of the mainland of the American continent over Columbus and Cabot. In the "Saga of Eric the Red" is the tale of Leif Ericsson's voyage in the year 1,000 from Greenland to Helluland (land of flat stones), which a comparison of records prove to have been some part of Labrador. The same saga contains detailed descriptions of voyages made by Thorfinn Karlsefni and Snorri of Alfathir to Vinland, which was a part of Nova Scotia, and to Mark-land, or Newfoundland. In the "Vinland History of the Flat Island Book" are descriptions of the voyages of Leif Ericson to Vinland and Markland, which, on account of details of the narrative, such as descriptions of the flora and fauna, the geographical peculiarities, and the careful nautical observations as to direction and length of time of the journey, are identified certainly as Nova Scotia and Newfoundland.

Substitutes Year 1,000 for 1492

In one narrative of the Flat Island Book the first sighting of the American mainland is claimed for one Biarni Herjulfson, but as this man is nowhere mentioned in all the rich genealogical history or tradition of the tale to be his father, the authenticity of the claim is seriously questioned.
As collateral proof of the verity of other portions of the sagas quoted, Professor Olson has included in his work copies of Pontifical letters found in the archives at Rome, in which mention is made of men and conditions of which the sagas treat. The proofs which Professor Olson brings forth are much of historical value, establishing, as they do, the unquestionable fact that Leif Ericson, not Columbus, was the discoverer of the American continent and supplementing the year 1,000 for that of 1492 as the beginning of American written history.

SELF DENIAL IS AIM

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 19.—Self-denial is the guiding principle of a new colony of Russians who have settled on a large island which they call
"Free Moscow" in the River Parana in Paraguay. The pioneers deny themselves meat and alcohol in every form, and they intend to rule fish as well out of their dietary.

Their intention is to form a colony of small farms, each with a little homestead and an orange grove, which those joining them can buy for about $450. There is a bureau of the colony in this city where intending colonists may enroll themselves and serve a term of probation before taking up the lots on the island.

Another tenet of the Free Moscow colony, who govern themselves on patriarchal religious principles, is the kind treatment of animals. No cruelty is allowed on the island.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood, which flowed so copiously from Mr.
Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs,

NORTH SIDE

WILL HARVEST ICE WITH MACHINERY

One of the large icehouses which have been undergoing construction for Louis Jinks, north of the Vought-Berger company plant, for the past few weeks, under the supervision of Contractor Peter Nelson, has been completed, and it but the roof of the other has been finished.

The icehouses are close to the river and are only a few yards apart. It is understood that machinery will be installed so that the ice will be brought up between the two houses and both filled in this way. A machine with two saws, which will cut the ice into regular size and at the same time put it upon a "jackway" similar to that used for logs, will be used. It is said that the invention is a recent one and that this is the most modern way of putting up ice that can be had.

Another large icehouse will be erected on the island across the river and the ice combination in this city will certainly be broken next season, although most of the ice will be shipped to outside consumers.

PATRONIZE READING ROOM

The North side reading rooms are being well patronized. Miss Willis, the librarian, is kept busy nearly all of the time and is no doubt well pleased with the number of books which have been out during the first few days.

FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral of Mrs. Maria S. Sorenson took place this afternoon at 2:30 from the Trinity Lutheran church on Avon street.

Interment was made in the Campbell cemetery. Andrew Sletten had charge.

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS

Most North side people are having their residences wired by the Electric Supply & Construction company, 227 Main street. Why don't you?

Mrs. William Dwyer has returned from Milwaukee where she has been undergoing treatment in the sanitarium for some time.

John Landis has returned to the North side and resides on Mill street. Theodore Groesinger has returned to his home on Avon street from Bayfield, Wis., where he has been employed for the past seven months.

Mr. Dobson has returned to his home on Caledonia street from Coon Valley.

Messrs. Jerry Jolivet and Chester Valiquette have gone to Withee, Wis., where they will be employed for some time.

Mrs. Arthur Shepard who recently visited in Spring Valley and has been visiting relatives on the North side for some time returned today to her home at St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Shepard have gone to Tomah where they will make their home this winter with the latter's mother, Mrs. Woodard.

Leroy Johnson of the river division of the Milwaukee is laying off for a few days on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lavaque Sr., of Grand Rapids, who have been visiting relatives in the city for the past month returned home today.

Miss Mary Maine who is teaching at Preston, Minn., is visiting at her home on Avon street.

Miss Lily Weymiller of New Albin who has been visiting her sister here for the past few days returned to her home today.

Misses Minnie Whittenberg and Jessie Johnson spent Sunday in Midway with relatives and friends.

AT THE THEATERS

Plays and Players

In Pittsburg tonight Olga Nethersole is to begin her American tour in her own version of Adrienne Lecocqeur. Miss Nethersole produced the play some time ago in England, where it made a profound impression and was pronounced her masterpiece.

After a short engagement in Boston, "The Bells of Mayfair," is to be taken to Daly's theater, New York, where it will open for the remainder of the season on Dec. 3.

Owing to the withdrawal of "Brigadier Girard" from the Savoy theater an arrangement has been effected by which "Sir Anthony," Haddon Chamber's new "comedy of the suburbs," will be presented at that playhouse, beginning tonight.

Mme. Alla Nazimova, leading actress of the Russian company of players that visited America last year after having been expelled from Russia for presenting a play that did not please the Czar, has just made her debut in English spoken drama in New York, presenting "Helds Gabler."

During the past week the first dramatic presentation of Oscar Wilde's "Salome" on any public stage was made at the Astor theater, New York, by Mercedes Leigh. An operatic version of the same work is to be sung at the Metropolitan Opera House during the season.

Musical plays are still heavy favorites among New York playgoers. "The Red Mill," with Montgomery and Stone as the stars, continues to pack Knickerbocker theater, while "The Blue Moon," the "Tourists," and several other plays of similar character continue to draw crowded houses up and down Broadway.

At the Unique
The Unique theater has another good show this week, featuring Winnings and Evans in "Kickapo Indian Romance," with Indian impersonations, comedy singing and dancing. Frank J. Winnings is considered America's foremost acrobatic, clog, eccentric buck and wing dancer. This is a high priced team and are considered the best in their line. Robby Rankin, in a musical act, is said to be fine by those who have seen him. These acts come high, but the management of the Unique does not stop at expense so long as they can please their patrons.

Jerome White, the sweet-voiced boy singer, sings "We Never Were So Far Apart Before," and "She Waited by the Deep Blue Sea."

The motion pictures are "Country Schoolmates," and "The Vengeance of a Lawyer's Clerk."

Another gold watch will be given away Tuesday evening to the person holding the lucky number.

WEDDED SATURDAY

Miss Caroline Paulsrud and Mr. Holte of Viroqua were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil Olsen of 509 South Third street.

Rev. A. K. Sagen of the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church officiated, and a large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served after which a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Holte received several handsome gifts. Miss Etta Nessler of the North side played the wedding march and rendered several fine vocal selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Holte will visit here until tomorrow when they will return to Viroqua where they will settle upon a large farm.

EDITOR SAVED BY WOMAN

STERLING, Ill., Nov. 19.—The pluck of Mrs. Odell, mother of a reporter employed by Fred Tucker, editor of the Mail and Express, of Walnut, saved Tucker from a beating that might have resulted in his death. Tucker in his paper has been waging war on the disorderly element in the town. Recently while on his way home from his office he was attacked and knocked down by a number of persons. At this moment Mrs. Odell rushed through the crowd and told the men that if they touched Tucker again it would be over her body. Others then interfered and Tucker was taken to the office of a physician and his wounds dressed. Twenty warrants have been issued.

TO BE MIXED AT HOME

A well known local physician is authority for the statement that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms, the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once a year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white, fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bed-time. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

CHATANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Memorials erected by the state of Iowa in honor of the soldiers of that state who took part in the civil war battles at Lookout Mountain and Sherman Heights were formally dedicated on the battlefields today by the officials of the Iowa-Chicamanga Park commission, assisted by Gov. Cummins and other eminent representatives of the state. The ceremonies were of a simple but impressive character. More elaborate exercises are to be held tomorrow accompanying the dedication of the Iowa monument at Rossville Gap.

ALLEGED ILLEGAL RESTRAINT

(Tribune Special Service.)

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 19.—Considerable interest is being manifested in the case of Simon G. Crosswell, of Cambridge, Mass., who was before the supreme court today with a petition prepared by himself, seeking a writ of habeas corpus. Crosswell is a Harvard graduate and the son of a distinguished legal authority. He alleges that he is illegally restrained at the Butler hospital for the insane here, and he charges abduction from Massachusetts. He was sent to the asylum in April of last year, his relatives stating that he suffered from hallucinations, the result of mental overwork. Crosswell claims that the certificate of commitment contains no statement that he is insane and needs restraint. He says that he has been under close guard and that he was prevented from writing to his friends.

Made Happy for Life

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by O. T. Erhart's drug store. Price 50c.

AS TO ROOSEVELT

A good many people—nearly all of them—like Theodore Roosevelt. Roosevelt has made a "cracker-jack" president. He has shown himself a man of his word. This is well.

When elected Mr. Roosevelt gave his word, and he has never been known to break it—that he "would not accept a renomination under any conditions whatsoever."

This was well. He has reiterated this several times. But each time some of the force of his refusal was omitted.

His latest "refusal" is that he "will not be a candidate" for re-election.

This is not so well.

Can Mr. Roosevelt be "reneging,"

Is he going back on his "won't accept under any condition" decision? Will he be "forced" to take it?

He has made good; he has kept his word; he has done things. Will he now break his word and "accept?"

We cannot believe Mr. Roosevelt will do this.

We cannot believe that Mr. Roosevelt is the only man in the United States honest enough, and capable enough to carry out the reforms which William Jennings Bryan proposed.

We think Mr. Bryan can do it.

It is to be hoped Mr. Roosevelt will not tax the confidence the public has in him by breaking his word, for if he started that practice he might break other promises to the people after he was re-elected, if he were.

Stick to your word, Mr. Roosevelt.

THE CURSE OF WOMANHOOD

It was Mary E. McDowell, the Chicago university settlement worker, who created a sensation by saying three million women in the United States were called upon to work for less than living wages at ages when their toil makes them unfit physically, and their associations unfit morally, for marriage.

And still the cry will go up from captains of industry on the great prosperity of the country.

"We cannot get enough help," is the cry frequently heard in cities of all sizes, where manufacturing is done.

A decade ago the cry would have been "we cannot get enough men," now it is "help," not "men."

There are good men in La Crosse today who are idle, because in our great prosperity, they find their positions filled by young girls working for from $3 to $6 per week.

This is great prosperity—for the manufacturer.

When he can hire female labor at $3 per head per week, it is certainly more "prosperity" for him than to have to pay a man living wages.

This is the sort of prosperity which breeds socialism, and even anarchy; it is the sort of prosperity which drains the life from the womanhood of the poorer classes and makes them unfit to fulfill their part in populating the world; it is the sort of prosperity which promises to make the future generation a weakling, a sickly, subservient slave of the manufacturers' prosperity.

Twenty years ago we did not have so much "prosperity," because the curse of female labor had not laid its heavy hand upon the industries of the country.

If union labor wants to do something for humanity, and for itself, it cannot begin better than to take steps to combat the "prosperity" found in female labor.

ETIQUETTE FOR THE GREAT

Etiquette is a sort of fool thing, after all, isn't it? Most of it is founded on the idea that God molded some kinds of clay better than He did others, and that a king is not made of the same kind of mud as a commoner.

Once King Alfonso fell down stairs. He was 12 then. He stood a fine chance of breaking his royal neck, but a servant threw out his hands and caught the little fellow. Now, it is Spanish etiquette that the person of the king is sacred and that no servant may dare touch him. This servant was dismissed from his position.

No person is allowed to sleep in an apartment situated above that of the king of Spain. The death penalty has been inflicted for that offense, and the last time the king visited Paris there was trouble at his hotel, and some guests had to be turned out. Etiquette.

No person is allowed to occupy a higher place than the empress of China. When there is a royal procession the house shutters all come down and the upper floors of houses are deserted. Etiquette.

You can't even kiss the hand of the sultan of Turkey any more. Once an anarchist, with a large dagger, leaned to kiss the hand of the Turkish ruler, and there was some stabbing that all but resulted fatally.

The laws of custom seem built on a plan intended to impress with the greatness of the few and the smallness of the many, and succeed, as we grow wiser, in convincing us that royalty is often ridiculous.

The seers who would not believe Indian summer was gone, were probably convinced yesterday.

One of the principal arguments in favor of Hearst, taking unbiased view, is the frantic opposition of such "citizen-strip" as Morgan, Rockefeller, Belmont, Rogers and Croker.

The important improvements being made by the Heileman Brewing company are noted with public satisfaction and are an assurance that La Crosse is not the only place where Old Style is appreciated.

A Yankee skipper, fresh from the typhoon zone, reports that his cargo of coconuts was churned by the storm into preserved milk shakes. This from the inventive genius of the wooden nutmeg incident.

With Harry sitting on the lid it looks like a long spell of innocuous desuetude for the sporting fraternity.

In their zeal to make republican campaign material out of whole cloth some of our good democratic friends at the city hall forget that they, too, may have to help chew the rag.

The Evening Strassapharilla wants to apologize to "the real Calaban." Probably thinks it's doing the hedgehog stunt.

Now it is intimated that some of the skeletons will not escape from the Hartje closet.

If the dissolution of the Standard Oil trust works like that of the print paper trust petroleum will soon become too expensive to be even metaphorically thrown on the troubled waters.

Anyway La Crosse has a spelling-reformer whose system cannot be scoffed at.

Sometimes there is more charity in the world than the evidence would indicate.

It was Socrates, the old sage of Athens, and not that Wisconsin pedagogue who originated the idea that "Boy is one of the worst animals to tame."

Joseph Pulitzer Jr., hit W. R. Hearst in the pit of the stomach because he reflected upon his illustrious father's record in a campaign speech. Now watch the paragraphers in the corporation press.

"Standing by" the president doesn't necessarily mean "standing for" some of the gang in office.

And even at that Hearst's vote in New York state was the largest ever polled by a democratic candidate.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS.

Gabriel Hanotaux.

Gabriel Hanotaux, one of the foremost statesmen in France, member of the Academy, and for many years Minister of Foreign Affairs, was born in the province of Aisne, Nov. 19, 1853. In the Ecole de Chartes he distinguished himself by winning the medal in paleography. Later he was professor in the Ecole des Hautes Etudes. In 1879 he entered the employ of the government, and was attached as under officer to the cabinet for many years. In 1883 he entered the diplomatic service, and for a time had sole charge of the embassy at Constantinople. On his return to France in 1886 he was elected deputy from his native province, and in 1889 was re-elected over the Bonaparte candidate. Shortly afterwards Hanotaux became Minister of Foreign Affairs, an office which he held without interruption through many changes of administration. Last spring he was more or less prominently mentioned as a possible successor to M. Loubet in the presidency of the republic. The published works of M. Hanotaux contain many valuable contributions.

SESSION AT JACKSONVILLE

(Special Tribune Service.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 19.—The attendance at the opening in this city today of the eighth annual convention of the Southern States Association of Commissioners of Agriculture was a most gratifying success. All the states of the south were represented by their commissioners of agriculture and other delegates.

The gathering was called to order shortly after 11 o'clock in the Board of Trade auditorium. The exchange of greetings and the reports of the standing committees occupied the greater part of the day. Dr. A. C. Cary, of Alabama, responded to the addresses of welcome delivered by Governor Broward, Mayor Nolan and President Garner of the Jacksonville Board of Trade. Commissioner Ogilvie of Tennessee, president of the association, delivers his annual address at the evening session.

The convention is to continue over Tuesday and Wednesday. In addition to the transaction of routine business the convention will listen to nearly a score of papers and addresses dealing with a wide range of subjects relating to agriculture in the

JUST LIFE

Renewed Acquaintance

Along last spring when the winter winds
Died out, and the sun grew warm,
And the leaves came out, unfolding
And we'd had our last hard storm,
We looked with unconcealed contempt
Upon our threadbare coat.
We hurried it in a corner while
We stood around to gloat.

We've seen the last of you, we mused,
Though for five years you've relieved
Us of the cold; then the threadbare thing

Seemed snickering in its sleeve.
In rage we leaped upon it
And stamped it in our hate
And kicked it in a mussy heap
And left it to its fate.

We frisked around all summer
In a high class "hand-me-down,"
Never thinking that the winter
Would so soon be coming round.
We spent our coin persistently,
We blundered near every cent,
It did not come to us at all,
How soon we must repent.

But now the sun has gone down south
And with it's gone the summer,
And every chilling wind predicts
The winter'll be a hummer.
Then anxiously we search about,
(We're in the same old boat)
And carefully we dust and brush
That same old threadbare coat.

When one reads the secrets of Standard's dirty dollars it seems good to have creditors.

As long as that Johnson boy is sane enough to brave periodical escapes to come home, it seems the asylum authorities might let him stay.

Why Croker Croaked

"The defeat of Hearst is the judgment of Heaven for a campaign of personal vilification against good men," says former Boss Croker, adding, "he called me a corrupt politician."

Since Catcher Erickson and Manager Moriarty are gone La Crosse should love Freepress as herself.

We would think Caruso would collapse.

Friday's smoker was illustrative of the strides to the front in fraternalism being made by the F. O. E.

And then they rendered that old sally, "the man who gets the money ain't the man who does the work."

A Chicago murderess' defense is that her victim agreed to marry her. A more likely cause for suicide.

Perhaps if the spelling reformers would come to La Crosse and get a real reform in spelling, they'd quit quarreling.

A Milwaukee minister has discovered that sin is not man's nature, but rather an acquirement. A lot of us common peep-knew that.

The season of church bazaars and "won't you please print this free" is near at hand.

IRVINE'S

HUGH LAND FRAUDS CHARGED TO BIG RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Affidavits are on file with the government here and have been called to the attention of President Roosevelt charging that the gigantic land frauds whereby the Union Pacific Railroad company secured illegally coal lands in the state of Wyoming valued at many millions of dollars were perpetrated with the full knowledge of the government land office, if not with its connivance, and were known, if not tacitly assented to, by the department of the interior.

The affidavits are made by Artemus J. Smith of Smith & Bradbury, dealers in mines and mining at Denver.

The papers are supplemental to a petition and other affidavits which were filed by Mr. Smith with the land office in Washington early in 1903, and they make a demand upon the department to start proceedings for the recovery of all the sequestered lands.

The charges made by Mr. Smith are sensational in the extreme and call in question the integrity of William A. Richards, government land commissioner, and of others high in the employ of the government.

It was the knowledge of the earlier charges made by Mr. Smith which led to the investigation by the interstate commerce commission recently at Omaha, Salt Lake City and Denver, and by which fraudulent land deals of great magnitude were uncovered.

In pursuing the investigation the interstate commerce commission was exceedingly careful not to uncover the fact that these deals and all the details connected with them, together with names and dates and amounts paid for alleged perjury, had been in the possession of the department of the interior for more than three years. Acting under the suggestion of government officials, the commission carefully avoided exposing or making an attack upon a co-ordinate branch of the government.

Embodied by the disclosures of the commission, Mr. Smith has again appealed to the department of the interior for justice, declaring that he has a prospective interest in the lands in question, and that he desires to assert and protect this interest.

Mr. Smith's charges may be summarized as follows:

That on Nov. 21, 1903, he placed before the department of the interior facts and data and offered to prove, if given the opportunity, that a vast acreage of land had been and still was being stolen from the government, and that little or no attention was paid to his petition.

That, after insistent demands and repeated charges, M. E. Myndorff, special agent of the land department, made an investigation in the Evans-ton district of Wyoming, which substantiated the charges made by Mr. Smith.

That, immediately thereafter, Mr. Myndorff was transferred permanently to Los Angeles.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

Lady of Fifty Looks Like Sixteen.
A Nashville lady found a way to beautify her complexion without the use of drugs or face creams.

"Before I began the use of Grape-Nuts," she writes, "I was convinced I could not live long. I was sick all the time; heart trouble, kidneys seriously affected, eyesight bad, sense of smell was gone and hearing very poor."

"My family thought I had dropsy and could not get well, and I only ate Grape-Nuts because I slept well afterwards—did not dream I could be entirely cured, had quit all treatment and given up hope."

"After spending a large sum of money, and being under the best physicians for three years without relief, I commenced eating Grape-Nuts food three times a day and now I am sound as a dollar, am in perfect health, fifty years old and my complexion is better than some girls at sixteen."

"I never have headache, nerves are strong, sight so much improved I need no glasses, heart and kidneys in perfect condition."

"Your Grape-Nuts alone cured me and I cannot find words to express my thanks to the Postum Co. I have told hundreds of people what cured me. It was simple food that I could digest."

"There's a reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

It sometimes amazes persons what damage has been done by improper eating, not knowing any better way. A change to Grape-Nuts soon tells the story. Read the famous book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

MORE PEORIA ROTTENNESS

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 19.—August Green Jr. and I. W. Crandall, members of the board of county commissioners and prominent in the business world of Peoria, have been indicted by the grand jury on charges of embezzlement of county funds.

The indictments came as a complete surprise. While it was known that investigation into charges against the two men had been conducted by the grand jury it was not expected that evidence had been adduced of a nature sufficiently damaging to result in the action taken by the jurors.

It is charged in the indictments that Green and Crandall, when selected to represent this county at the national good roads convention, held in Portland, Ore., last summer, as the majority of the board of county commissioners, voted themselves a large sum from the county treasury for expense money for the trip, a great portion of which, it is charged, was far in excess of the amount required for actual expenses and mileage.

Another count in the indictments recites that the two commissioners were guilty of pocketing money which should have reverted to the county in connection with the sale of material from a township bridge, which was ordered taken down by the board. It is charged that Green and Crandall had the material hauled away and disposed of it, dividing the proceeds between themselves, none of the money being turned into the county treasury.

Both of the indicted commissioners declare their innocence and assert that they will be able to clear themselves of the charges. Both gave bonds for their appearance at the next term of court.

Green and Crandall are of prominent families of Peoria, and the indictments have resulted in a sensation.

SATURDAY'S GAME

In a reversal of form, which the most enthusiastic high school supporter admitted was unexpected, the La Crosse high school team trounced the Winona high school football team at League park Saturday afternoon, winning by a score of 39 to 0, the largest score ever rolled up against either of the schools by the other.

The game was replete with sensational plays showing the gains that might be made under the new rules. Seven touchdowns were made in the two twenty minute halves, the La Crosse players rushing Winona about at will and scoring almost when they pleased. At the close of the game, the physical condition of the locals showed they remained fresh, while Winona was glad the contest had closed. The defeat was decisive, the most decisive ever administered to Winona by the locals. "Thoroughly trounced" was the expression on the lips of the light hearted high school lads, while the Winona rooters gloomily admitted stinging defeat.

Clean football, with only a few penalties imposed for violation of the rules, to bring about debilitated football was the rule for the day. Long end runs, forward passes with an occasional line smash cheered the large audience to a frenzy, while the La Crosse players reeled off a play more brilliant and dashing than before.

Quarterback Burns, Halfback Taylor and Ends Shaw and Tourtellotte took a large share of the honors in advancing the ball. Fullback Fowler and Captain Dahlgren made their distance through the line time and again.

The Gate City boys were able to make first down only twice. On fumbles Tackle Haley broke through and secured the oval for La Crosse. His work was brilliant, considering the difficult position he played. When called upon to advance the ball, he responded quickly and with a gain. Mueller at center played a fast game.

Byrne deserves the credit for the first touchdown, placing the ball on the Winona two yard line after a forty yard run. Dahlgren went over. From then on, the first half was replete with fast plays, the locals making a total of 16 to 0. Byrne made the second touchdown and Captain Dahlgren called upon himself for the third.

In the second half Captain Dahlgren made the first two scores, Taylor the third and Fowler the last.

The teams lined down as follows: Winona..... La Crosse. Perkins.....le..... Shaw. Hermanson.....lt.....A. Dahlgren. Nissen.....lg..... Hendrickson. Tearse.....rg..... Mueller. Bambenek.....rg..... seventeenth annual meeting of the congress.

Secretary A. F. Francis estimates that there will be in the neighborhood of 1,500 delegates present when Chairman F. W. Fleming of the executive committee calls the meeting to order. Every state west of the Mississippi river is expected to send its full quota of delegates and several of the commonwealths will be represented by their governors, congressmen and other public men.

Tomorrow's sessions will be devoted for the most part to the making of welcoming speeches and responses and the formal organization of the gathering. The sessions are to continue until Saturday.

Secretary Root is to be the chief speaker before the congress. He has selected as his topic, "The Possibilities of Establishing Direct Trade Relations Between the Mississippi Valley States and South and Central American Countries."

The subjects scheduled for discussion at the congress cover a wide variety. As heretofore, irrigation and the opening of western river navigation will receive much attention. Trusts and their relation to business, government ownership of railways and other public utilities, the preservation of the forests, levees in Texas and Louisiana, harbor improvement, merchant marine, drainage of public land, statehood, the Pan-American commercial union, deep water from the lakes to the gulf, and naval construction on the Pacific coast are some of the other topics that will receive the attention of the congress.

TRANS MISSISSIPPI CONGRESS

(Tribune Special Service.)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—Everything is in readiness for the opening session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress, which is to begin a four days' session in Kansas City tomorrow. It will be the gentlemen's game." Though the winter has scarcely begun two national championship tournaments have already been pulled off and a third is scheduled to begin tonight.

The tournament beginning tonight is for the new American championship trophy, emblematic of the 182 balk line championship. The entries have been restricted to the players who are in what is designated the "second class," or those just below class A, which is composed of Hoppe, Slosson, Schaefer and Sutton.

Numbered among the players eligible to take part are such well known cue experts as "Father Tom" of Chicago, Peterson of St. Louis, Cutler of Boston, and Gallagher and McLaughlin of New York.

The new trophy is to become a player's permanent property if defended successfully for one year, either in match or tournament play. All games will consist of 400 points, and the holder of the championship trophy receives the right to name any city in the United States in which to play a match in defense of the title. The winner of the first tournament will be required to play within thirty days after receiving a challenge.

A WORD ABOUT SARNA CRUZ

This is truly the bargain week of the great Tribune contest. By a little extra effort enough votes may be secured to build up an impregnable reserve. Many candidates have given us the assurance that they are going to work the next six days, and work hard. Do not let your competitors get the subscriptions in your locality pledged before you awake to this proposition.

More votes will be issued this week undoubtedly than all the previous weeks put together. And why not? This declining vote offer is the best inducement yet and those who do not take advantage of it can readily see that they will lose the opportunity of the race.

A recent visit to Santa Cruz by the manager of the contest revealed a condition indicating that the coming season at that place is to be one of exceptional attractions. A greater number of bands have been engaged than ever before in the history of the resort. The new plunge bath, wherein water is maintained at a temperature of 80 degrees and constantly replenished from the ocean has been put into perfect condition at a heavy outlay. For those who are interested in the popular pastime of roller skating the news will be of interest that a rink has just been erected and was opened a few days ago. The charm of the beach itself and the country immediately surrounding Santa Cruz baffles description. There is no resort on the entire coast where a week or two can be spent more enjoyably. The Santa Cruz mountains which lie but a short distance north are fenders against the north wind, condensing the moisture as it is carried by clouds inland from the ocean preventing the possibility of severe winds and contributing to make the climate of Santa Cruz ideal. The famous Fremont grove of big trees is only five miles from the city of Santa Cruz. Fifty of the trees in this grove range from thirty to sixty feet in circumference and from 200 to 300 feet in height. Thousands of people including princes, presidents and eminent men from all over the world have visited the Santa Cruz big trees and the testimony of all has been that no one who has the opportunity should fail to see these stupendous and awe-inspiring specimens of nature's handiwork. These and many other features which have contributed to make Santa Cruz noted will be enjoyed by the nineteen young women who are successful in winning the trip prizes. The Tribune is now perfecting arrangements for the entertainment of the winners which will include every item of necessary expense from the moment they leave their homes until they return. Provisions will be made not only for comfortable hotel accommodations at Santa Cruz but in the selection of an alpe the fact that many young ladies will be unaccompanied by their elders will be taken into consideration and accommodations appropriate in all respects will be chosen.

STOMACH'S IMPORTANCE

How to Strengthen It So That It Will Act as It Should.

The stomach is the principal organ concerned in the digestion of food. If it is weak, inactive or out of order and unable to properly digest the food, the body will soon be in a state of semi-starvation.

Then, too, when the stomach is weak, the food is not properly digested and lies in it for hours, decomposing, fermenting and forming poisonous gases and ptomaines that are absorbed into the blood, poisoning the system and impoverishing the blood.

To enjoy good health, it is absolutely necessary that the stomach and digestive organs should be strong, and no other remedy equals Mi-o-na in strengthening and giving tone to the whole digestive system.

Relief from the use of Mi-o-na is permanent and lasting. Use Mi-o-na for a few days, and the digestion will be good, the appetite keen, and there will be no nausea or distress after eating, no sleeplessness, no nervousness, and the headaches, backaches and disturbed heart action that are the direct result of a weakened stomach will soon be overcome.

Mi-o-na is sold under an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the remedy does all that it claimed for it. Ask O. T. Erhart to show you the guarantee which he gives with every 50-cent box.

Murphy officiating and William Dwyer in charge. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

BRAGG STARTS STORM WITH DEMOCRATS

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 19.—General E. S. Bragg, formerly one of the leaders of the Wisconsin democracy, has given out a sizzling interview in which he says there is no such thing as a democratic party north of Mason and Dixon's line, nor is there any leader of the party in Wisconsin who can be trusted. Democrats who have read the interview resent the assertions of the doughty little general. John A. Aylward, who has just been beaten for the governorship by Governor Davidson, makes a long reply in trying to show that General Bragg is all wrong.

The two statements of the general that caused the most stir were these: "I do not recognize that there is any democratic party north of Mason and Dixon's line. No political organization north of that line reflects the spirit of democracy as I learned to know it or as I accepted it."

"Wisconsin democracy! Why discuss it? I know of no man in Wisconsin who has the qualities of leadership, and who is to be trusted and calls himself a democrat. I don't say there are none. I say that I do not know of any."

Evil in Privileged Wealth
Speaking of the general political situation, General Bragg said: "Money controls government. We will never have any relief until we send men to congress whose skulls are thick enough on top to protect their brains from the heat reflected by the shine of gold. The remedy is in the hands of the voter. Privilege is responsible for the tremendous growth of wealth, and relief will not come until we cut off the privileges. It will be a slow process and will come only after the people have been made to understand the iniquity of special privileges. Trusts are the outgrowth of privileges. Cut off the privileges and the trusts will cease to exist."

In reply Mr. Aylward, in an interview in Madison, said General Bragg was always interesting and unique and never commonplace. He had been honored by the democrats but left the party on the silver question, and recently returned from Hongkong, where he had served as consul. The long association with republican manners and methods, said Mr. Aylward, was shown in every line of the general's statement.

Aylward is Polite

Mr. Aylward said the allegations needed no answer so far as state leaders were concerned, and the general's own statements regarding the control of the money power under republican rule showed that there was a democratic party by its position on these subjects. Although he is seemingly unkind, Mr. Aylward said the democrats of the state would wish General Bragg long life and happiness. Wherever democrats gather the Bragg interview is the topic of conversation, and the general's ears must have burned sadly today if there is anything in the old saying.

Congressman Weiss, the democratic member from the sixth district, is authority for the statement that the tariff reformers can organize the next house if they desire to do so. Mr. Weiss in an interview, says that in order to get a revision of the tariff it will be necessary to overthrow Speaker Cannon, who is a stand patter, and who will see that nothing along that line is done while he occupies the speaker's chair.

If the republican members who favor revision would select another candidate for speaker said Mr. Weiss, the democratic members to a man would support that candidate, provided only that he was pledged to assist in the revision of the tariff. The democrats, the congressman said, would ask for nothing else than this. Committees and other appointments might go to the republicans. If the republicans are in earnest regarding the revision of the tariff, he said, they now have an opportunity to show their hand and make a start along that line.

BIG REWARD FOR LOST SON

PITTSBURG, Nov. 19.—The father of James Taylor, Jr., who shot and killed Isaac Carter, a negro, in a quarrel at Duquesne, Monday night and who has since escaped arrest, has offered a reward of $1,000 for the capture of his son.

"I want my son brought to justice," said Mr. Taylor. "I will have to sell my property to pay the reward, but I will willingly do it."

CATALOGUE HOUSE TALKS IN STORE PAPER

(From Dry Goods Reporter.)

Spielberg's Trade Bulletin, Hooper, Neb., is the title of as spicy a store paper as can be found. The size of the paper is 11x15 1/2 inches. There are four pages in the paper, which is exceptionally well printed and quite attractive. General and local news are supplied in this paper. It is printed in four columns. Any merchant who desires a sample of one of the best store papers it has been the Reporter's privilege to see should send for a copy of this. In a recent number appeared an article regarding mail order buying, a part of which is reproduced here in the following:

Loyalty or Disloyalty, Which?

At a meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the lodge of Hooper, Neb., it was decided to purchase new curtains for the hall.

The ladies had held entertainments and had worked and saved and secured the funds, and now the male members of the order who stood by and looked wise were called together to direct them how to spend the money.

Chaplain Goodman called the meeting to order and asked Hon. James Holmes to take the chair.

"I move," hurriedly said Bro. Holdtite, "that we send to Chicago and get ours of Gitem & Soakum, the great catalogue house."

Dr. Wiseman's wife seconded the motion. Hon. James Holmes then arose in great excitement.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said he, "you are making a great mistake. No community can prosper that divides its forces. Its buyers and sellers must always work hand in hand."

"Huh," said Bro. Holdtite, "I believe in buying where I can get things the cheapest."

"So do I," answered Hon. Holmes; "that is one reason why I by my goods at home, for I've learned that the home merchant gives better goods for the money and his competition keeps his prices down."

"It's my business to spend my money where I please," angrily answered Holdtite.

A Square Deal

"Just so, and strike your home man when you want credit," answered Mr. Holmes. "I'm not built that way; the home man buys my products and employs other people who consume my products; he spends his profits home, therefore he is entitled to my support."

"When the members of the lodge held an entertainment some time ago, do you remember, Bro. Holdtite, how busy you were striking the business man to buy tickets? I never heard of Gitem & Soakum buying one ticket."

"But these here curtains," again began Bro. Holdtite. "You can bank on them being low grade," broke in Mr. Holmes. "All this Gitem & Soakum catalogue stuff is. We have reliable, responsible houses here in town. Why not buy of them? E. O. Spielberg sells curtains of quality. We all know he handles the best curtain made. And a house as enterprising as this, that carries a full line of dry goods, hosiery, shoes, hats and caps, underwear, groceries, etc., is entitled to local support."

"You can get groceries cheaper by clubbing," declared Dr. Wiseman's wife.

Quality Inferior

"What kind?" snapped Hon. Holmes. "Bogus spices, imitation coffee, sloppy canned goods, refuse stuff of all sorts! The clubbing grocery man is one of the worst evils we have, and when you compare his prices with E. O. Spielberg's for pure, fresh and wholesome food articles, you'll find E. O. Spielberg's the cheapest after all. His grocery department offers you clean and complete stock of everything possible in staple and special groceries."

"The big cities set the fashions, why should we buy our hats at home?" argued Dr. Wiseman's wife.

"The reason why you should buy your hats at home," said Mr. Holmes, "is this: Mrs. Mary Feinagle has provided every facility for getting everything that's new and admirable in the world of fashion. Her trimmers are as expert as those you find in the city, and as well posted, and have correct styles."

"The ladies of Hooper and vicinity will make no mistake in inspecting her goods."

"The home merchant's prosperity does not interest me," butted in Col. Noeiss.

Assortment and Price Right
"Then you're short sighted," answered Mr. Holmes. "Take the furniture store of Buchholz Brothers. Their profits are applied to help the town. They subscribe to public enterprises. They sell you furniture that is right, at prices that are money savers. They carry a stock that in extent and variety is the pride of the town and an assortment larger than in many of the large cities."

"They also carry a complete line of trunks, bags, suit cases, telescopes, etc."

"The most credulous people I know are those who send away for jewelry and watches. Cheap, unreliable goods are those sold by Gitem & Soakum, the great Chicago catalogue house. It is easy to fill a mail order with trash and so impossible for the victim to say a word. With a house like Zellers & Kusel you are safe. Back of the fact that the goods are on hand for inspection is the guarantee of these well known merchants, who could not afford to misrepresent quality. Zellers & Kusel carry the best grade of watches, clocks, jewelry, sterling silver and plated ware from the best manufacturers in the country, and do repairing promptly at moderate prices."

Price and Quality Win

"There is only one way to get genuine quality," said Mr. Holmes. "Buy of a home man you know."

At this point the entertainment committee reported that it had arranged with E. O. Spielberg to supply everything needed for the banquet supper in the line of pickles, canned fruits and vegetables, teas and coffees, canned fish, etc. Besides it was a question whether it wasn't cheaper to buy from him. All of the lodge members promptly endorsed the action of the committee.

"In most cases," continued Hon. Holmes, "it is thoughtlessness that leads people into seeming forgetfulness of home enterprises. Merchants themselves, who should of all others, appreciate a strict observance of loyalty, sometimes stray after false goods. They use foreign printed stationery, unaware of the fact that they can do just as well right here at home. Take, for instance, the job department of the Hooper Sentinel. It has equipment and facilities for all kinds of commercial job printing and turns out first class work. It is loyal to all home enterprises and deserves the support of Hooper business men."

"I 'low I've been converted, Bro. Holmes," humbly acknowledged Bro. Holdtite. "I withdraw my motion."

Mrs. Dr. Wiseman agreed with Bro. Holdtite. And that's why Gitem & Soakum, the big Chicago catalogue house, failed to receive an order for the lodge room curtains, and which instead was given to the progressive home dealer, E. O. Spielberg.

This does not only apply to the Gitem & Soakum company, but to many more catalogue houses of the country who are doing business here.

Stop, consider just a moment the reason why your home merchant could not sell as cheap or cheaper than the catalogue house. He can, and in many instances, sells a great deal cheaper.

I know it would be a pleasure to any merchant in Hooper to have you come in and look over his stock in come in and look over his goods and compare prices with any catalogue house in existence. Before buying anything you need, come in and look over the lines of your home merchants.

HAILED AS HOMER'S RIVAL

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Bulgaria is happy in the possession of a poet who is said to rival Homer. A few days ago, a book of poems appeared called "Sufferings," which was found by the critics to be so good that they did all they could to find the author. He was discovered to be a poor young man, named Toschkine, who, failing in all other means of a livelihood, had taken to walking the streets. He had even to sleep in the open air, as he could not afford the price asked for a bed.

Store-management is something of a "black art," for printers' ink is usually black, and without it there is no "store-management"—only "store-keeping."

STICKS UP FOR BONI

LONDON, Nov. 19.—"The countess has been spoken of as they prey of an adventurer," remarks Mrs. Emily Crawford, Truth's famous Paris correspondent, referring to the former Countess Boni de Castellan, now known since her divorce by her maiden name of Gould, with the motherly prefix of "Mrs."

"She had all she bargained for. Does any American heiress bargain for honest, quiet conjugal happiness? No. She wants a splendid stage on which to shine, with costly belongings and a grand title and in illustrious society on footing of equality."

"Did Count de Castellan give all that to Jay Gould's daughter? She had the pick of European society at her entertainments. Millions were spent—but why? To provide her with the stage for which her ambition craved."

The present last evening were Messrs. and Mesdames William Webb, August Yehle, George Baum and Nic Birnbaum.

CAN QUIT SUBMARINE

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Henry Middleton, a London inventor, has patented a sub-marine from which it appears possible for a crew to escape if the machinery should get out of order while the boat was at the bottom of the sea. The conning tower is a detachable compartment, which can be separated by compressed air. It is lighter than water, so that when detached, it rises to the surface, and its top, projecting above the water, becomes visible to the rescuers.

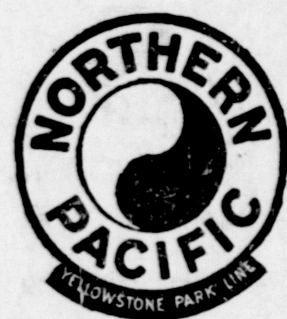

The inventor claims also for his boat that it can be submerged quicker than the present type of submarines. The craft has two pairs of fins at the sides, worked by electricity. "They act," said Mr. Middleton, "like the fins of a fish in propelling the boat, while, according as they are inclined up or down, they cause the vessel to sink or rise. A large crew is not necessary. All the work can be done by one man, who stands at a table on which are several levers. He directs the movements of the submarine by turning a handle or pressing a button."

"Experts say the only drawback to my invention is expense, but they admit that it will work. It is the result of eighteen years of study and experiments."

SUIT AGAINST MUTUAL LIFE

TOLEDO, Ohio, Nov. 19.—A suit to recover $169.68 paid to the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York has been begun here by Frank C. Schmidt, aged 20. The suit is in the nature of a test. Schmidt wishes to recover the amount paid by him on a $2,000 policy of the limited life and deferred dividend character. It is claimed that the plaintiff entered into a contract with the company in 1903 and was to pay $5.56 annually for twenty years. Further claim is made that at the expiration of the twenty years the amount of the premiums which would be due him would be less than those upon which the agent induced him to sign the contract.

OPERATE ON KAISER? THIS DATE IN HISTORY

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—It is no longer a secret that the kaiser is suffering from something far more serious than the slight cold mentioned in the official press. The old disease of the inner ear which has baffled all surgical and medical skill and grown acute, and the kaiser is suffering intense pain which prevents him from sleeping, and he has grown so irritable that every one is afraid to approach him. Ministers of state and other high officials who are commanded to read their reports to him, say that he paces up and down the floor and that it evidently takes all his will-power to keep from crying out aloud. It is the fear that a dangerous operation, the outcome of which is doubtful, will have to be performed in the near future, perhaps even before the end of the week.

"The newspaper size" of a store—the relative space of its advertisements, compared with those of its competitors—is more in the public mind than the actual size of its buildings or salesrooms.

November 19.

1865.—Slavery abolished in the United States.

1871.—Grand Duke Alexis, son of the Czar of Russia, arrived in New York.

1873.—"Boss" Tweed convicted of defrauding the city treasury of New York.

1890.—Gen. Seliverskoff, Russian agent at Paris, assassinated.

1893.—Trainmen of Lehigh Valley Railroad went on strike.

1896.—Great fire in Cripple Creek quarter of London; $10,000,000 property loss.

1898.—Gen. Don Carlos Buell died. Born March 23, 1818.

1901.—Liberals captured Colon, Colombia.

1903.—House of Representatives passed the Cuban bill.

1904.—Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge of Kentucky died. Born 1837.

You will have to look long and far to find a totally uninteresting advertisement—or one that will not, in some manner, repay the reader.

SARAH TO ECONOMIZE

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Sarah Bernhardt has startled Paris by announcing that she is giving up her house to live in a fifth floor flat.

Where the celebrated actress is going to store the innumerable treasures of art, literature and curios which her house contains nobody knows.

Sarah Bernhardt's house has been considered one of the monuments of Paris, and though it stands on an outer boulevard overlooking fortifications and the general public seldom got a glimpse of its interior, and few tourists viewed its facade, everybody knew it was there, and no more expected to see the divine Sarah to move away than they would expect one of the statues in the Place de la Concorde to step down off her pedestal and walk away.

The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels go on strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at O. T. Erhart, druggist.

CORN LANDS

Do you want corn and hay lands, rich as the valley of the Nile? Do you want a farm in the Sunny South? A climate so mild that frost is seldom known, and fields so fertile that three crops a season can be raised. You can get all this in Tidewater Virginia and Eastern North Carolina, along the lines of the NORFOLK & SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

DOERFLINGER'S

TROLLEY SLEEPERS FOR ILLINOIS

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 19.—The first sleeping cars to be operated on the lines of an Illinois traction company will be placed in service Dec. 1. They will run from central Illinois points to St. Louis. The price of a berth will be $1. The cars to be operated are now in the shops of the company in this city, being gotten into shape for regular service. They cost $25,000 each and weigh 100,000 pounds. Each car has four 150-horse power motors. They are of handsome equipment and each can accommodate twenty persons. These are the first interurban sleeping cars to reach Illinois and the experiment will be productive of much interest in transportation circles.

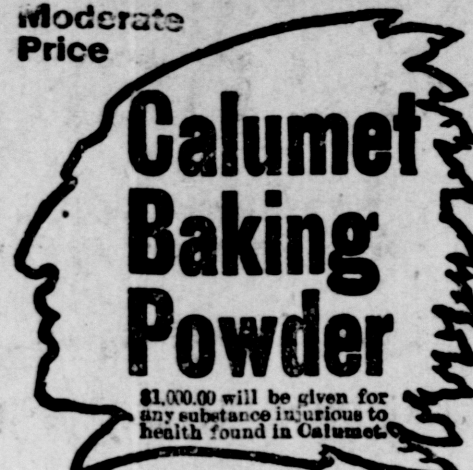

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM

(Tribune Special Service.)
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 19.—Many public men of prominence were present today at the formal opening of the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the National Civil Service Reform League. During the quarter of a century since it was formed the league has seen civil service rules supplant the "spoils" system, in numerous departments of federal, state and municipal governments, the success of the movement being due in no small measure to the earnest work and continuous efforts of the league.

The program of the present meeting covers two days and provides for addresses by President Daniel Coit Gilman of the Carnegie Institution; Henry F. Greene, of the United States Civil Service Commission, Mayor W. F. Henney of Hartford, President Hadley of Yale University, and Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte. Secretary Bonaparte is one of the pioneer members of the league, as is also President Roosevelt.

SECRETARY ROOT TO SPEAK

(Tribune Special Service.)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—Secretary Root, who is here to attend the meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, has accepted an invitation to deliver the principal address at the twelfth annual banquet tonight of the Kansas City Commercial Club, commemorating the 112th anniversary of the John Jay treaty between the United States and Great Britain. Another notable guest at the banquet is to be John Jay Shieffelin, a great-grandson of John Jay, first chief justice of the United States, who prepared the treaty between this country and England.

NEW CHURCH PARLORS OPEN

The new parlors and Sunday school rooms of the King street M. E. church which are nearly completed will be dedicated Sunday, Nov. 25th, provided the rooms are finished as is now expected.

These rooms when finished will be modern throughout and elegantly furnished and equipped with every convenience that modern architecture can devise.

On Tuesday, Nov. 27, the parlors will be thrown open to the public and a church bazaar will be given by the ladies commencing at noon and continuing during the afternoon and evening. A chicken pie supper will be served at 5:30 in the evening for 25c.

The ladies are arranging to make this a very enjoyable affair and no doubt will receive the hearty patronage of all.

Miss Helen Wrzesinski, 402 North Fifteenth street, was injured at the Modern Steam Laundry last Friday. She fell down stairs, bruising her face. Miss Wrzesinski is forelady at the laundry.

GOTHAM'S ANNUAL HORSE SHOW

(Tribune Special Service.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Madison Square garden, festooned in orange and black, presented the usual bright and animated appearance today at the opening of the twenty-second exhibition of the New York Horse Show association. In the social position and wealth of its clientele, its large public attendance and in the number and value of its entries, the show this year is up to high standard already established. Viewed as the opening event of the social season in the metropolis the show may fall a little under expectations. There are surface indications that such may be the case, though the opening day is a poor one to judge decisively on this point. But the presence of Prince Henry of Battenberg, Miss Alice Roosevelt and many other notables last year set a standard of social brilliance that will naturally react upon the exhibition this year.

From the viewpoint of the lover of fine horseflesh, however, the present show has never been equalled. The entries comprise nearly 2,000 of the choice of American stables and stock farms. Neighboring states are represented and in the competitions are steeds which have been brought from the Pacific coast, from Canada and the southland.

ICE MEN ARE IN SESSION

(Tribune Special Service.)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19.—The annual convention of the Middle States Ice Producers' Exchange began in this city today, with headquarters at the Chittenden Hotel. More than ordinary interest is manifested in the proceedings of this year's meeting owing to the prosecutions of the ice dealers in Toledo and other cities of the state during the past summer for alleged illegal combination to raise the prices. Whether the convention will take any action in regard to this matter the members refuse to state. The president of the organization is Robert R. Reynolds of Cincinnati and the secretary, C. M. Kinnaid of this city.

Tribune great contest closes Saturday, Dec. 8th, at 10 o'clock.

WHERE PRICES AND QUALITY ARE RIGHT

Cicero said that "it is a mark of great wisdom to take precautions against reverses of fortune"—such precautions, for instance, as buying a bit of real estate now and then, while able to do so. Do not let yourself overlook the real estate ads.

"Men learn to shave on the chin of a fool"—and, sometimes, found their prosperity on the adversity of others. For example—buying a store or a property whose owner is forced to sell. And many such opportunities are found in the ads.

TEXAS CLUB WOMEN

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 19.—The advance guard of delegates has put in an appearance for the ninth annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, which is to be held in El Paso this week. Tomorrow will be taken up with the reception of the visitors and the regular business of the convention will begin Wednesday morning. Advances received by the arrangements committee indicate there will be a good attendance from all parts of the state.

BIG CLEARANCE SALE: STARTING NOVEMBER 19 AND FOR THE REST OF THIS MONTH

We have decided not to wait until the season is over, but right now when the goods are in demand, just when you need them most we will give you the chance to save big money on every purchase. Read Carefully Every Quotation for it will surely save you money. The Power of This Store to command the leading position in furniture business as it does in this city lies principally in the truthfulness of its advertisements and this together with the dependable quality of the goods always carried by this store gives us a commanding position attained by few stores. For instance, if we say we sell you at special sale a $10.00 article for $7.50 you can depend upon it being exactly as we say. When we give a clearance sale it is not a cut price on three or four articles but it includes many. We are willing for you to be judge as to quality and the prices we name you speak for themselves. Our motto for this sale is large sale and small profits. ARE YOU WITH US?
